CHESAPEAKE & OHIO PASSENGER WRECKED

Richmond, Va., Jan. 1.—(Special)—At 1:57 Thursday morning No. 5 passenger, known as the Chesapeake & Ohio Special, running between Old Point and Cincinnati was wrecked, when it ran into a slide of dry shale. The scene of the accident is a curve just east of McKersy, W. Va., and the slide consisted of sealy rock dislodged by wet weather springs and slidings to the west bound track. The passenger train was running at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour when it ran into the slide causing the engine to be partly overturned and derailing the mail and express cars, shaking the passengers but none of the passengers were injured.

Engineer Wm. J. Dunn, of Hinton, W. Va., was instantly killed, while fireman L. E. Terrell, of Huntington, was slightly buried.

How to Sleep.

The most natural and restful posture when sleeping is to lie flat on the chest, lower limbs perfectly straight, one arm being down by the side, the other thrown up slightly over the head, face turned to either side. Use no pillow. This will help greatly to straighten the shoulders and give restful, dreamless sleep.

Like Homicidal Mania.
"A man who has once murdered the queen's English always feels as if he'd got the body under the sofa. It's like homicidal mania; the poor wretch may be cured, but he lives in terror of an attack returning. He knows it doesn't matter what he is or what he does; he may live like a saint or write like an archangel; but one attack omitted from his conversation will wreck him at the last."—May Sinclair.

Poor Day for Theater.
A Paris newspaper has been diverting itself with speculations as to the smallest receipts ever taken in at a theater box office. The record at the Comedie Fr anaise is thought to have been made on May 21, 1871, when the fight against the Commune was under way. On that day the receipts were 54 francs, or $10.80.

The past has been good—that we knew you. May the New Year bring you increased prosperity and happiness and us your continued confidence and good will.
